Dollina Taylor Allin (nee Miller), aged 97 years, passed away peacefully at Manitou Lodge in Watrous on Wednesday, March 31, 2021.

Dollina was born to Harry and Margaret Miller in Westbrooke, Maine on Dec. 15, 1923. At age five her family moved to Montreal where she resided until 1945. As a YWCA member during the war she met Clifford who was training in Montreal. She enjoyed walking, balloon volleyball and was a voracious reader. Dollina was absolutely stellar at motherhood. Her summer months were spent at the cabin at Manitou Beach where she loved to swim in its unique water, walking in Wellington Park and picking berries. She enjoyed hosting family and friends from everywhere at the cabin.

Her family wishes to thank all the caregivers that have assisted Dollina, including staff at Villa Royale, Porteous Lodge and most recently all the wonderful staff at Manitou Lodge.

She was predeceased by her husband Clifford E. Allin and her only sister Margaret.

A private family graveside service will be held at a later date.
