

CAMERON,
Ewen Gavin

Ewen Cameron of Watrous passed away unexpectedly on December 2, 2021 at the age of 69.

Ewen was a loving father, grandfather and husband who leaves behind a legacy of friendly smiles, back-road talks, and an eccentric taste in coffee. He lived his life as an easy-going, hard-working farmer and instrument technician open-mindedly dedicated to the happiness of seemingly anyone who crossed his path.

His highest dedication was to his family. He leaves behind his loving wife, Lois Elaine (Mattson), children: Nita (Curtis), William John (Dee), and Anna Maureen (Sanjoy), sister Ellen (Henri), brother Thomas (Dolores), grandchildren Danica, Marcus, and McKay, nieces and nephews, and many more.

He was predeceased by his father, William John, mother, Ruth, mother-in-law, Irene, father-in law, Arne, and brother-in-law Henri.

Ewen's second-highest dedication was to farming. He was raised on his parents' homestead in Carievale, Sask. then raised his children with Elaine on his new family farm in Watrous. Though he eventually retired as an instrument technician, he could never retire from farming. There was nothing he enjoyed more than peacefully reflecting with a view of his cattle herd. He passed away doing what he loved.

Celebration of life service was held at Fotheringham's Funeral Chapel, Watrous, Sask. on December 9 conducted by Rev. Jo-Ann Hills. Maureen Cameron and Nita Chester gave the eulogy.

Family interment will take place at a later date.

Memorial donations directed to Watrous & District Food Bank would be appreciated.
