

DENGLER,

Kayden Albert James

Kayden Dengler, aged 6 weeks, passed peacefully at Royal University Hospital, Saskatoon, in the arms of his loving parents on Monday, January 9, 2017.

Kayden was born on November 27, 2016. During his six weeks here he touched many lives and hearts. He was loved deeply by his mom and dad Michelle and Derek and their families and their friends.

Little Kayden loved everyone around him, anyone who would snuggle him and talk to him. He loved listening to his daddy play guitar, snuggling with fuzzy blankets and warm baths with his mommy. Afternoon naps in his parents arms will be missed.

He was loved by all who met him and will be greatly missed and cherished by his paternal grandparents Byron Dengler (Crystal) and Shelley Dixon (Sean) and maternal grandparents Michael and Bev Swift, great-grandparents Ken and Joan Carlson, Jean Swift, Melvin and Carol Dengler, Debbie and Doug Dixon, aunts and uncles, Lorna Melgar (Alex), Lesley Swift-Holt (Mike), Teresa Dyer (Jeff), Katie Dengler (Darrian), Ryan Dengler (Brookelynn), Jeremy Dengler (Becky), Owen Wailing, Meadow Wailing, Sam Walker (Ryan), Tyler Ingram, Ashley Dengler (Luda) and cousins Zachary, Isaiah, Nixon, Weston, Kiley, Sarah, Sadie and Shelby.

Along with a large family who loved him dearly, Kayden was predeceased by his great-grandfather George Swift and Uncles Colton Lietz and Collin Swift.

A private family service was held at Fotheringham's Funeral Chapel on Saturday, January 14, 2017. Surrounded by family, Michelle Swift conducted a celebration of Kayden's life. Kevin and Michele Ackerman and Jarvis Mattson supplied the music. Kayden's grandpa Michael Swift was soloist.

Memorial donations directed to Ronald McDonald House or Watrous Community Health Foundation would be appreciated.

To leave online condolences, tributes or to make a donation, please visit www.fotheringham-mcdougall.com

Fotheringham-McDougall
FUNERAL SERVICE