

HILL, Donald Maurice

Donald Hill, aged 73 years, passed away at St. Paul's Hospital, Saskatoon, Sask. on Wednesday, April 26, 2017.

Donald was born on May 13, 1943 in East St. Paul, Man. His parents Roger and Wally and three siblings, Dorothy, Bruce and David all grew up in Imperial, Sask. He left home at an early age to work on the oil rigs before getting into heavy equipment operating in British Columbia, specializing as a finishing grader operator. He married Yvonne and they raised three children, Peter, Kevin and Nicole. He was handy with his hands enjoying making burial tables, clocks, etc. He also enjoyed sports like stock car racing, F1 racing, football and hockey. He was a big Saskatchewan Riders fan even while living in B.C. He had a lot of pride for the work he did and his company HCL Construction in Moose Jaw. Don grew ill in early 2017 and rapidly worsened before passing away from liver and kidney failure on April 26, 2017 in St. Paul's Hospital, Saskatoon.

Don is survived by his loving family, three children: Peter, Kevin and Nicole (Hidenori); two granddaughters Jasmine and Christina; sister Dorothy (Mervin), two brothers Bruce (Charlene), David (Pat) and a number of nephews.

He was predeceased by his father Roger and mother Wally.

Memorial service was held at Fotheringham's Funeral Chapel on April 29.

Interment followed at Imperial Cemetery.

Memorial donations directed to Long Lake Valley Health Foundation would be appreciated.

To leave online condolences, tributes or to make a donation, please visit www.fotheringham-mcdougall.com

Fotheringham-McDougall
FUNERAL SERVICE