

DORNIAN,
Stephen Frederick

Steve Dornian, aged 88 years, passed away at Grace Hospice in Regina on Wednesday, January 23, 2019.

Steve was born on March 12, 1930 on the homestead in Outram, Sask.

Steve has one surviving sister, Helen (Norman) Wolff from Port Alberni, B.C. He leaves behind to mourn his wife Therese, of 64 years. He also leaves to mourn six children, Robert (Gyongyi), Janette (Ron) McKenzie, Suzanne (Mark) Stengel, Glen, Sheryl (Gerry) Harty and Rodney (Tina); 14 grandchildren, Damon (Chelsy), Erica, Kimberley, Michael (Autumn), Jill (Troy) Kocur; Linda, Dallas (Casey), Dylan (Jolene), Alysha, Marissa, Cole and Kasandra, Hannah and Hunter; 10 great-grandchildren, Jenaya, Marcus, Joey, Ty, Bentley, Chris, Morgan, Madeline, Raeya, and Alana. They were all very special to him. Steve also leaves and cherished all the friends and relatives of the communities of Liberty, Penzance, Stalwart, Holdfast, Imperial, Simpson and Watrous. He thanks you all for the companionship over his past 63 years. We know he wouldn't have wanted to spend them anywhere else.

He was predeceased by eight siblings, Mary, Rose, Arthur, John, Kathleen, Paul, Madeline and George. He was also predeceased by his son Wayne (Connie) in 2006, one grandchild, Grant in 1990, and one great-grandchild, Gracie in 2008.

Mass of the Christian Burial was held at St. Pius X Roman Catholic Church, Imperial, Sask. on Feb. 2 conducted by Father Rheal Bussiere and Father Richard Meidl, OSB.

Cross bearer was Rodney Dornian. Glen Dornian was urnbearer. Tina Dornian and Vicki Kaminski were readers. Eulogy was given by Father Rheal Bussiere. Bev McLane was the organist and pianist was Pat Joa.

Private family interment will take place at a later date at Wolfyton Cemetery.

Memorial donations directed to Canadian Cancer Society or Children's Wish Foundation would be appreciated.
