

DAVENPORT,

Dwight Allan

Oct. 11, 1952 - Mar. 3, 2016

Dwight Davenport passed away peacefully at the age of 63 years in his home at Brookhaven Care Centre, Kelowna, B.C. after a short battle with pneumonia.

He was predeceased by his parents John (Jack) Davenport (1994) and Kristin (Bjola) Davenport (2004); sisters-in-law Elaine Davenport (1986), Marlene Davenport (2009) and Jeanette Davenport (2009).

Dwight is survived by brothers Roger Davenport (Dean (Shelly Bilinski) Dengler, Denise (Chris) Zuck, Jen (Todd) Nagy), Linton (Lynn Dufort) Davenport (Amanda Davenport); sisters Lauren Davenport and Jacqueline (Don) Golden (Alaina, Davis, Olivia Golden); great nephews Christian and Jordan Zuck, Tyler Nagy and great nieces Megan Dengler and Mackenzie Nagy; as well as aunts, uncles and numerous cousins.

Dwight was born in Saskatoon and raised on the family farm north of Young, Sask. He left for Alberta in 1969 to chase his dreams. Dwight was a wanderer and followed his own path and dreams in life. He spent several years in Alberta and B.C. operating heavy equipment, working on road construction and in many mine sites. He had a love of mountain scenery and took many photographs of places he worked and adventures he had. He also had a special affection for dogs and loved his two German shepherds. Dwight spent the past several years under care for depression and dementia and lived the last five at Brookhaven in Kelowna. A big thank you to the Brookhaven staff for the care Dwight received and to Kelowna General Hospital for caring for him during his recent illness.

A memorial service will be held at Hillcrest Memorial Garden, Saskatoon, at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Canadian Mental Health Association or SPCA.
