

MARTA,
Fay Lucille

Fay Marta, aged 66 years, passed away at Kelowna General Hospital on Sunday, February 7, 2016.

Fay was born May 3, 1949 in Saskatoon, Sask. She was the second eldest of four born to Elizabeth and Ambrose Balogh. Fay married Basil Marta in 1965 and together they had three children: Sharlene

(Sean), Dean (Joanne) and Delvin (Tracey), six grandchildren: Brandon (Brittany), Devin (Carlene), Keith, Jasmine, Alyssa and Sydney as well as three great grandchildren: Chloe, Chase and Abbigail. Fay spent the majority of her working years at the Watrous Lodge/Hospital. Even after retirement you could find her there visiting and bringing smiles and laughter to many of the residents. Fay had a passion for the outdoors; some of her greatest pleasures came from gardening and bird watching. If she wasn't at the cabin she would be sewing or baking, her greatest joy was making birthday cakes for family and friends. She will be dearly missed and in our hearts forever.

Fay is survived by her two sisters Jean (Garth) Hibbert and Rita (Ivan) Allin and brother Dave (Judy) Balogh.

Memorial service was held at the Watrous United Church on February 18 conducted by Rev. Karl Shin.

Urnbearer was Dean Marta. Bob and Gail Lawson and Bernice Reddick were register attendants. Ushers were Dennis Koolen and Arnie Volk. Rita Allin gave the eulogy. Organist was Melanie Manson.

Interment followed at Watrous Cemetery.

Memorial donations directed to Saskatchewan Lung Association would be appreciated.
