

GIESELMAN,
Herman
July 28, 1925 -
Oct. 12, 2019

It is with deep sadness and great love that we announce the passing of Herman Gieselman of Saskatoon, (formerly of Young for 88 years) at Royal University Hospital on October 12, 2019, surrounded by his family.

Herman was born on the family farm at Young on July 28, 1925 to John and Margaret (Bender)

Gieselman, the third child of four. He grew up on the farm with his older brothers Leonard and Ted and younger sister Teresa. He continued to farm there until he retired in 1986. Herman and Agnes (Raczynski) were married on July 15, 1952 and shared 67 beautiful years together. They were blessed with six children, which they raised on the family farm, later moving into the town of Young in 1972.

Herman is lovingly survived by his devoted and loving wife Agnes; children: Blanche (John) Allingham, Sharon (Brian) Haines, Connie (Wes) Soderberg, Kelvin (Vyenda) Gieselman, Ivan (Louella) Gieselman, and Kim (Gerald Audit); 14 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Herman is also survived by his sister Teresa Alisch, four sisters-in-law and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Friday, October 18, 2019 with Fr. Rhéal Bussière and Fr. Peter Olisa co-celebrants. Rite of Committal was at Young Catholic Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to St. Patrick's Cemetery Fund (Box 269, Young, Sask. S0K 4Y0).

Arrangements are in care of Aimé Laventure – Mourning Glory Funeral Services.
