GILL,
Louise
Feb. 22, 1932 -
June 17, 2023

Louise Gill of Watrous, Sask., aged 91 years, passed away at Manitou Lodge, Watrous District Health Complex on Saturday, June 17, 2023.

Louise was born in Imperial, Sask. to Joshua and Emma Hannah. She attended school at Indian Hill and the family moved to B.C. in the mid 1940s and to Watrous in the late 1940s. Mom married Wilmot Gill in 1950 and they had seven children. Wilmot passed away suddenly in 1973. Mom had worked from a young age and after Wilmot died, she ran a successful janitorial business for 25 years, at times having more than 20 cleaning contracts. She had a colourful and adventurous life. From riding horse, her 3-wheeled bike, to getting her driver's licence and her yellow Camero. She loved a houseful of people and a good party. She moved to Manitou Beach in 2015 and loved it. From barbecues and fish frys on the deck to cruising to the flea market on her scooter to buy out the pie lady.

Louise was predeceased by her husband, Wilmot, longtime companion Raymie Reichert, infant daughter Donna Mae and sons Roy and Walter.

She is survived by Norma, Joanne (Pete), Lori (John), Alex (Jenn), Poppy (Sherwin), nine grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and several nieces.

Mom was so very proud of all of her kids, grandkids and great-grandkids. You all brought her purpose, meaning to her life and loads of love and laughter.

Louise chose to not have a funeral. At a later date family and friends will gather to tell stories and celebrate Mom's life, and of course, have a huge feast!

Memorial donations directed to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals would be appreciated.

To leave online condolences, tributes or to make a donation, please visit https://fotheringham-mcdougall.com/

Fotheringham-McDougall
FUNERAL SERVICE