

GOODSMAN,
Jean Margaret
(Squair)

Jean Goodsman, aged 90 years, passed away at her residence near Stewart on Tuesday, June 19, 2018.

Jean was born in Viking, Alta. on February 9, 1928. She lived with her parents and six older brothers on a farm near Kinsella until she finished

Gr. 12. Her parents had moved to New Westminster and she relocated there. She completed her training as a registered nurse at the Royal Columbia Hospital in 1949. In the last year of her training she met her future husband George Goodsman when he spent that winter working at the coast. She worked a brief time in B.C. and Alberta before coming to work at the Imperial Union Hospital in 1952. George and Jean were married in November 1952 and she became a farm wife while continuing to work part time at the hospital until 1991. She was a quiet peaceful person and liked to do for others in a selfless manner. She enjoyed writing letters to many family and friends. Her faith was an important part of her life until the end. Her husband George passed away in October 2013 and she continued to live in their farm home. She died quietly and peacefully there where she remained with her family on June 19, 2018.

She is lovingly remembered by her three sons and daughter: Gordon; Gary (Bonny, Sheena, Brendan, Chelsea, Tyler, Kale, Wyatt, Sarah, Sean, Jess); Glenn; Gayla; daughter-in-law Brenda and grandchildren: Devin, Tanna (Elisanne), Jeric. She is also survived by her brother-in-law Frank (Helen); sisters-in-law Marie, Helen, Ellen, Audrey, Ella, and Marg as well as many nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

Funeral service was held at Imperial Community Centre on June 23 conducted by Dustin Collins, Muriel Henderson and Agnes Smiley.

Register attendants were Larry and Elaine Cruise and Russ and Corrine Kirzinger. Gordon Crittenden and Fred Mundt were ushers. Pianist was Lorrie Pihrag.

A private family interment in Imperial Cemetery preceded the funeral service.
