

HOBMAN, Ann

Ann Hobman (Hodge) loving wife, mom and grandma passed away at St Paul's Hospital in Saskatoon on Wednesday June 19, 2019, at the age of 77.

Ann was born December 7, 1941 on a stormy day in Nokomis Hospital. Ann married the love of her life on October 18, 1960 and resided at the farm helping in many capacities until her passing. Even though she never held any official titles on any boards she was a behind the scenes get it done kind of person from clerking to timing and announcing. Ann was a committee member at Canadian Western Agribition and Buffalo Days for many years. She was inducted along with Clayton to the Saskatchewan Livestock Assoc. in 1996. As well they received the Community Service Award at Canadian Western Agribition. Family was extremely important to her and she was always there to help, encourage and cheer for her children and grandchildren.

Left to mourn her are sons Doug (Sherry), Samantha (Mylyn), great-granddaughter Tori, Stacey (Jace); Mark (Faye), Quinten, Emmett; Dean (Kimli), Paige, Holly (Tyler); daughter Crystal (Harvey), John, Scott; sister Ina; brothers Roy, Lyle (Betty), Neil (Bev); in-laws Dennis (Audrey), Elaine and Connie as well as numerous nieces, nephews, families and friends.

She was predeceased by husband Clayton, father Arthur, mother Mary, brother Grant, brothers-in-law Albert, Dave and Herb.

Funeral service was held at Nokomis Arena on June 28 conducted by Rev. Jack Robson.

Honorary pallbearers were everyone in attendance. Joyce Braun and Ruth Morningstar were register attendants. Ushers were Harvey Braun and Ron Morningstar. Lois Mortenson was pianist and soloist was Ruth Ann Richter.

Private family interment followed at Lockwood Cemetery.

Memorial donations directed to STARS would be appreciated.
