

BURKITT,
Margaret Grace
Mar. 10, 1929 -
May 14, 2017

Margaret Burkitt (nee Lord), aged 88 years, passed away peacefully at the Watrous Manitou Lodge on Sunday, May 14, 2017 with family by her side.

Margaret was born on March 10, 1929 and raised in Bethune, Sask. Upon completion of Gr. 12, she attended the Regina General Hospital School of Nursing and graduated in 1950. She nursed in Regina, Portland and Salem, Oregon, and Royal University Hospital in Saskatoon. She ended her nursing career, after 35 years of service, at the Watrous Union Hospital. Margaret enjoyed her long career as a nurse. Her enthusiasm and dedication was outstanding. Margaret married Lewis Burkitt of Amazon and the two decided to make their home in Watrous. Mom was a busy lady, having four young girls to take care of, helping dad, working full time and being on many committees.

Margaret is survived by her daughters, Maureen (Leslie) Gartner of Watrous, Lynn (Bob) Freundl of Medicine Hat, Lori (Greg) Meddins of Young; grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Lacey (Craig) Anderson of Watrous and their children Carson, Harper and Collins, Marcie (Ryan) Halyk of Melville and their children Keaton and Grady, Riley (Kye) Campbell of Swift Current and their daughter Nye, Brady (Fallon) Campbell of Swift Current and Hailey Campbell; sister Marion Garbutt of B.C.; many nieces and nephews; as well as the many nurses and friends she made over her lifetime. Mom was loved by so many and will be so missed.

She was predeceased by her twin sister at birth, Eileen; her younger brother Allan; her parents Mary and George Lord; her sister Nancy Wilke; her husband Lewis, in 2011; and her eldest daughter, Colleen Burkitt, in 2014.

A private family funeral service was held in All Saints' Anglican Church, Watrous, Sask. on May 17 conducted by Rev. Matteo Carboni.

Private family interment followed in Watrous Cemetery.

Memorial donations directed to the Canadian Diabetes Association or Alzheimer Society of Saskatchewan would be appreciated.
