

LEARNED,
Margaret
Dec. 16, 1927 -
June 17, 2016

Margaret Learned (nee Claughton) late of Kindersley, Sask., previously of Watrous, Sask. passed away at Heritage Manor on June 17, 2016 at the age of 88.

Margaret was a kind, generous, strong woman who lived her life well. She married Raymond in 1947. They farmed at Young, Sask. until 1954 when they moved to Watrous. Over the years she became a beautiful seamstress. She sewed for many people for over 40 years. She was very proud of her work but also enjoyed all the visits from her customers. A couple years after Raymond's passing, Margaret moved to Kindersley to be with family. She lived in her own little house until February 24, 2016 when her health issues forced her to move to the Heritage Manor. Margaret had many grandchildren who will always remember her laugh, her smile and her little giggle. She was a strong woman who loved her children and grandchildren and great grandchildren very deeply. She was always there to help anyone in their time of need. She also made time for her love of gardening and cooking.

Margaret will be greatly missed by her Alice (Ken) Hergott and child Gregory (Leanne) Hergott, her son Ron Learned and his children Kelly Learned (Matt Parks)-Jakob and Ben and Amber (Shane) Garritty-Finn and Eamon, granddaughter Michael Learned (Ed Picard)-Zack, Ashton, Jorja and Ginger, her daughter Wendy Anderson and her children Ashley Wildman (Jamie Carter)-Preston and Madison, and Amber Wildman (Brenan Plant) and her daughter Desiree (Mark) McEvoy and also survived by her brother Jim Claughton (Gale Ewalt). Mom, grandma, great grandma and sister, you will be dearly missed.

She was predeceased by her true love and husband of 53 years Raymond Learned.

A graveside service was held Monday, June 20, 2016 in the Watrous Cemetery with Reverend Nancy Lee presiding.
