

MINTKAWETZ,
Lynn

On the morning of Wednesday, July 12, 2017, Lynn passed peacefully surrounded by his loving family at the age of 69 years, at St. Paul's Hospital in Saskatoon.

He is survived by his wife Lenore, daughter Cheryl (Greg) and their children Paige, Grayson; son Curtis (Lindsay) and their children Gaby, and Alex.

He is predeceased by his parents John and Elsie Mintkawetz; sister Janet Dengler; brother Kyle Mintkawetz; parents-in-law John and Jean Dengler; brothers-in-law Val Wooff, Ray Dengler, Ron Dengler, John Hrycuik, and nephew Kerry Dengler.

His life was celebrated at Holy Spirit Roman Catholic Church in Saskatoon on July 18, 2017.

Lynn's family would like to express our gratitude to the following people: Loretta Krauter for providing a wonderful meal for our family, also Terry Douglas, Terry and Barb Davies, Helen and Ewald Weber for giving us a ride to the hospital or Cancer Clinic, Terry Douglas and Ewald Weber for doing our yard work, Terry Haughn for being an excellent neighbour and watching over our house and Helen Weber for doing all the canning in the fall. Thank you to Bill Ulmer, Terry and Barb Davies, Terry Haughn for helping us move and to all who showed up to wish us well. That meant a lot to us!

Thank you to Lloyd and Joyce Sperling for coming with Lynn and I on our bus trip to Winnipeg in the spring. We had such a nice time.

A special thank you to Watrous home care and hospital staff for your wonderful care. Many thanks to everyone for all the nice visits, food, cards, flowers, and to those who went out of their way to show their concern and kindness. Words cannot express our appreciation throughout this whole journey.
