

EAKET,
Rachelle Anne-Marie
Dec. 30, 1952 - Aug. 27, 2016

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Rachelle Eaket, loving wife and mother, aged 63 years. Rachelle died surrounded by her immediate family at the Watrous District Health Complex on August 27, 2016 after a very short but courageous battle with cancer.

Rachelle loved spending time with her family, camping, playing cards, singing and sitting by the fire with a glass of wine. She enjoyed the outdoors, her beautiful yard and could always be found with a large book of crosswords nearby.

Rachelle is survived by her husband Darrell and their children Greg (Bobby-Jo), Heather and Kristie (Joel) as well as her three grandchildren Natalie, Ethan and Emily. Also left to mourn are her siblings Gill, Esther (Dave), Alice (Harold), Bob (Val), Yolande (Louis), Vivianne (Norman), brother-in-law Roger (Ruth), many nieces and nephews and all other family and friends who loved her.

She was predeceased by her infant son Keith, sister Diane, mother Marie-Rose and father Germain.

A Vigil for the Deceased was held September 1 at St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church, Watrous, Sask.

The Mass of the Christian Burial was held at St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church on September 2 conducted by Fr. Richard Meidl OSB and Fr. Gérald Michaud i.v.dei.

Pallbearers were Ken McCormick, Ken Morrison, John Murray, Earl Huenison, Larry Yeadon and Doug Gratton. Marlon Dancy and Jeff Gratton were register attendants. Ushers were Candace Gratton and Tammy Dancy. Bobby-Jo Eaket and Joel McNair gave the tributes to life. Readers were Bert McNair and Ethel Skulmoski. Doug Dombrosky gave the responsorial psalm. Intentions by Don Martin. Alice Zimmerman and Yolande Gratton were pall placers. Communion wine servers were Glenn Eaket and Terri Martin. Natalie Gunderson, Ethan Eaket and Emily Eaket were giftbearers. Soloist was Brenda Olde. Kristie McNair was the flute soloist. Choir leader was Antoinette Prokosch and pianist was Carol Hicks.

A private family interment took place in Watrous Cemetery on Sunday, September 4.

Memorial donations directed to the Watrous Community Health Foundation or the Canadian Cancer Society would be appreciated.
