

FLETCHER,
Royal William
Thomas (Roy)
Oct. 5, 1923 to
Mar. 5, 2018

Roy passed away peacefully Mar. 5, 2018 at Watrous Manitou Lodge at the age of 94.

Roy was born in Lemberg, Sask. Oct. 5, 1923. He farmed the family homestead until moving to Young, Sask. in 1969 to work at the local mine. He worked at the mine until retirement at the age of 65. He stayed in Young until 2014 when he and Dorothy moved to Watrous, Sask.

Roy was a dedicated member of the Royal Canadian Legion for over 70 years. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and gardening. Roy got great enjoyment from socializing with family and friends. He lived life to the fullest, enjoying the outdoors (walking and biking) and the company of others. He was compassionate and kind to others with a true love of family and history.

Roy is survived by his wife Dorothy of 12 years, his children Marie Holdner (Brad Holdner) and Mark Fletcher (Kim Williams), his grandson Blaine Holdner (Angela Holdner), and great-granddaughter Claudia Weinmeyer. Roy is also survived by Dorothy's children Marlene Dieno (Melvin Dieno) and Louis Thompson (Agnes Thompson), and both of their children and grandchildren.

Roy was predeceased by his first wife Helen, his parents Alex and Clara and his sister June.

A funeral service was held at Christ Lutheran - United Church in Young on Saturday, Mar. 10 and was conducted by Rev. Karl Shin and included the Royal Canadian Legion Honour Guard. Pallbearers were Mark Fletcher, Brad Holdner, Blaine Holdner, Melvin Dieno, Louis Thompson and Don Read. Register attendants were Olga Meddins and Irene Holdner. Ushers were Jerry Osmak and Richard Lieslar. The eulogy was read by Blaine Holdner and reader was Ang Holdner. The organist was Elaine Frey.

A memorial luncheon was provided by the Young Inter-Church Group and held at the Young Community Centre.

Cremation and Interment will take place at a later date at the Lemberg Cemetery.
