SIEGFRIED,
Kenneth George (Ken)

Ken Siegfried, aged 73 years, passed away quietly at the Watrous District Health Complex on August 27, 2016.

Ken was born May 22, 1943 in Drake, Sask. to Mary and Fred Siegfried. Ken worked at Mainline Motors in Watrous for 18 years. They moved and found jobs in other centres including Langley, B.C. and Calgary, Alta. and returned to retire in Watrous. Ken enjoyed a roaring campfire, a large fish on his hook and a golf club in his hand. He will always be remembered for his love of a fantastic practical joke whether he was the joker or the one being pranked.

Ken is survived by his devoted wife, Janice, his son Jeff and daughter-in-law Karen and his daughter Gina and his son-in-law Carmelo. Ken is also survived by his sister Zelma (Erwin) Klinger and brother Gordon (Diann) Siegfried and many nieces and nephews and their families. Ken's 3-Star selection who lit up his life were his grandchildren, Jacob, Joseph and Angelina who are left with countless memories of their funny Papa.

He was predeceased by his parents.

Celebration of life was held at Fotheringham's Funeral Chapel, Watrous, Sask. on August 30 conducted by Pastor Doug Gregory.

Honorary pallbearers were Ron Gross, Ted Skibinsky, Keith Vanthuyne, Fraser Mark, Keith Engele and Gerald Merrifield. Maxine Skibinsky, Lynn Merrifield, Diane Gross and Carol Gross were register attendants. Ushers were Karen (Todd) Thomas and Darren Tarasoff. Valerie Elias, Leanne Elias and Dawn Quinlan (Ken's nieces) gave the family tribute. Readers were Cec Despins and Aimee Keffer. Gordon Siegfried gave the eulogy.

Interment will take place at a later date.

Memorial donations directed to Watrous Community Health Foundation for the palliative care room would be appreciated.
