

TANG,
Tze-Chun
Glen

It is with profound sorrow that the family of Glen Tze-Chun Tang announces his passing on Nov. 27, 2022. He passed peacefully surrounded by loving family. He is survived by his four children, Eric (Delphine), Cathy (Carson), Jean

(Don) and Betty (Conrad). He also left behind his beloved eight grandchildren Jeffrey, Janelle, Kim, Steven, Samara, Rachel, Madison and Aislinn and seven adored great-grandchildren Warner, Camilla, Weston, Alex, Liv, Celina and Bryant.

He was predeceased by his wife, Pearl Yi-Ping Tang, and mother, Szeto Choi-Sim.

Glen was born in the province of Guangzhou, China on Aug 14, 1930. He was the oldest of 3 children. Unfortunately tragedy struck the family and his younger brother and sister perished prior to or at the onset of World War II. His father also died, leaving him to be raised by a single mom. Life was difficult, and Glen had to leave school early to work to help support his mother and grandmother. He often said that he only obtained a Grade 3 level education. Despite that, he taught himself how to read and write, both Chinese and English. He married our mother Pearl Yi-Ping Chu, his life partner, in 1955 in Hong Kong. They had 2 children – Eric and Cathy while they lived in Hong Kong. Driven by his childhood poverty and lack of educational opportunity, Dad was determined to make a better life for his family. He immigrated to Canada in 1958 to find work and to make enough money to bring his family to Canada. In 1959, Pearl and their 2 children made it to Canada. Dad stayed working in Alberta, while Pearl and the 2 kids stayed with extended family in Saskatchewan. They had 2 further children born in Canada, Jean and Betty. In 1969, Dad and Mom achieved their dream of purchasing a restaurant in Watrous, Sask. They achieved great success with the New Cameo Restaurant which they ran for 13 years. They retired for one year and then started another restaurant in Humboldt, Sask. They named it The Sincere Restaurant, and like the Cameo, it was highly successful. Dad and Mom retired in 1995. They moved to Saskatoon and enjoyed a magnificent life filled with family, golf, gardening and travel until their passing.

Glen started to play golf in his 50s and became obsessed with it. He played as much as he could (often leaving poor Mom to do all the work) while still working. When he retired, he became a card-carrying member of the Wildwood Golf Course in Saskatoon and played virtually every day. His other love was gardening, especially flowers. Their front yard in Saskatoon was covered with flowers. Dad also enjoyed doing Chinese calligraphy and the walls of their house and also the walls of family's houses were covered with examples of his beautiful calligraphy. Dad loved to travel and his best trip was their return to China and Hong Kong in 1996.

The most important thing for Dad was family. He was not a demonstrative man, but he adored his wife, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His family was everything. He was respected and liked by his in-laws and extended family and friends. He will be missed greatly but he is now rejoined with the love of his life, our Mom.

The funeral service for Glen will be held at Mourning Glory-Acadia McKague's Funeral Chapel, 915 Acadia Drive, Saskatoon, Sask. on Wednesday January 18, 2023 at 3:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Glen's honour can be made to a charity of your choice.
