Obituary

HISLOP, Lois E.

Lois E. Hislop, 92, wife of the late Gordon Hislop died peacefully February 8, 2018 under the gentle care of the Dwelling Place in Nanaimo, British Columbia.

She was born to Elmer and Fanny Dagert on September 24, 1925 in Watrous, Sask. Lois served Canada as a Corporal in the War Office in Ottawa during the Second World War and became an active, long-term member of the Royal Canadian Legion. She enjoyed travelling and spent many winters in Arizona. Most of all she loved people. Before retiring to Kelowna she worked for 23 years as the owner/operator of a campground in Castlegar. She will be missed by an abundance of wonderful friends from diverse locales and from all walks of life.

Lois is survived by two children: Randall Hislop of Calgary, Alta. and Laurel Hislop of Vancouver, B.C. Five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren also survive her.

Memorial services are planned for a later date in Watrous.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Canadian Cancer Society.

Thank you

The families of Rhonda Elke wish to express our deep appreciation to each and everyone in all communities for their support during Rhonda's difficult battle with MS. Thanks to the Watrous District Health Complex staff for their care and visits. Thank you to Fotheringham-McDougall and to everyone for their acts of remembrance through memorial donations, flowers, food, cards and hugs. Also to Pastor Glenn for his guidance and the Jansen community for lunch and supper. Special thanks to Michelle Amendt and family, Rhonda's supper friends, and her lifetime friends who made special trips to visit. To the Liebrechts, Arnsts, neighbours, and friends who continued to support Rhonda and us in so many ways, we are very grateful. Thank you to Jean Hanson, Betty Vickaryous and Bonnie Thomas and to our caregivers who stepped up at a minutes notice. To Rhonda's friends and classmates who were there whenever she picked up the phone to call. Your visits meant so much. Once again from the Elke, Harding and Lindgren families we say thank you for the support and love given to Rhonda and us.

The family of Bert Meddins would like to say thank you to everyone for your many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy on his passing. Your cards, letters, memorial donations, phone calls, visits, food and flowers are greatly appreciated. Special thanks to Manitou Lodge, Dad's home for almost two years for your care, kindness, compassion and patience. Father Richard Meidl, your time spent with the family and your kind words and reflections on Dad's life was truly appreciated. Thank you to organist Cheryl Schaan and St. Patrick's choir, to David Schaan and Jamie Jones for serving as ushers, to Don and Debbie Read, Shirley Schatz and Bev Keffer for being the register attendants. Thank you also to the ladies of St. Patrick's Parish for providing the lunch after the service. Many thanks to Fotheringham-McDougall Funeral Service for taking care of so many details.
- Olga, Greg and Lori, Pat and Cecil, Rick and Patricia, Joyce and Harry and families
