

ULLYOTT,
Evelyn Mary (Martin)
1931 - 2022

Evelyn Mary Ulliyott passed away peacefully July 3, 2022 at Good Shepherd Villas in Prince Albert, Sask., where she had lived for the past two years.

She was predeceased by her husband, Calvin Ulliyott; daughter Wanda; parents Isabella Blair

(Munro) Martin and Robert Martin; brothers Robert, John and Wayne and sisters Rhoda, Ethel and Muriel.

She is survived by daughter Kathy (Victor; d. 2018), sons Cameron (Karen) and Colin (Stephanie); son-in-law Mark Leakos; grandchildren Theran, Lauren (Blair), James (Samantha), Sebastian (Joanna), Evelyn, Bobbe, Jacqueline, Samantha and Katherine; great-grandson Paul and sisters Isobel and Katherine.

Evelyn Mary Martin was born Dec. 17, 1931 on the family homestead south of Renown, the fifth child of nine. She attended a rural school called Mount Lorraine and then Renown School. While other little girls played "house," Evelyn played "school," and dreamed of being a schoolteacher since the age of seven – an ambition she fulfilled after attending Normal School in Saskatoon. She taught at Iduna School west of Penzance and at Imperial and Simpson until 1956. She met Calvin Ulliyott at a dance in Renown in 1950, married him in 1954; they raised their four children and created many happy memories in Simpson in their 50 years together. Evelyn loved gardening, all manner of handicrafts (she was a remarkable knitter), baking and cooking, collecting recipes, travelling (especially road trips) and a good joke. She was immensely proud of her Scottish heritage (her parents had immigrated from Scotland). Her greatest love, however, was her family. Even though some of her family lived out of province, she devoted her time, life and heart to being active in the lives of all her children and grandchildren. She will be terribly missed; however, we are so grateful to have had Mum with us for 90 years.

I am standing on the seashore.

A ship spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the ocean.

She is an object of beauty and I stand watching her; 'til at last she fades on the horizon and someone says, "She is gone."

Gone where? Gone from my sight; that is all. The loss of sight is in me, not in her; And just at the moment when someone says, "She is gone," there are other voices who are watching her coming. Other voices take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!" – Henry Scott Holland

A funeral service was held at 2 p.m., Saturday, July 9 at McClure United Church in Saskatoon with Hillcrest Funeral Home and Cemetery handling the arrangements.

If you wish, in lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society.
