

WOROBEC,
Mervin
Aug 21, 1921 -
Dec. 24, 2018

On Christmas Eve, in the afternoon, surrounded by family, with the warm winter sun shining into his room at the Royal University Hospital, Mervin passed away peacefully at the age of 97.

He was born to Peter and Tekla Worobec in 1921, the youngest of three boys and big brother to eight sisters. Mervin was born and raised on the family farm near Venn. He attended the Geneseo School and later, Ridgeford School when the family moved. Coming from a large family meant never being lonely or being without something to do, but it also meant finishing school early to contribute to the family farm. As a young man Mervin worked for several farmers in the Amazon area, and briefly in a coal mine in B.C., eventually saving enough money to buy land near Venn and start his own mixed farm. Mervin had heard about a lovely Ukrainian woman teaching at nearby Indian Head school, who just happened to be single. With his charm, mischievous smile, and determination he won the heart of Olga Kryk. They were married in 1951 and together raised five boys, expanded their family farm, and still managed to find time to enjoy their favourite pastime – dancing. Mervin enjoyed farm life and although the work was hard, never complained. He was a dedicated farmer, an addicted do-it-yourselfer, expert carpenter, and an excellent dancer. He once said “working the fields was his holiday.” It took tact, ingenuity, coaxing and nagging, and sometimes a crowbar to pry him away from the farm. Mervin and Olga lived on the farm for 34 years before moving to the town of Watrous. He continued to work on the farm well into his 70s. Mervin enjoyed the simple things in life; friends, music, dance, and most of all – family.

Mervin will be lovingly remembered by his sons: Randy (Janice), Richard (Carmen), Robert (Joan), and Gerald (Lorraine); his grandchildren: Pamela, Adam, Angela, Rebecca, Rita, Rianne, Stephen, Jason, Holly, Laura, Theresa, Hillary, Amanda, and Christopher, as well as his great-grandchildren: Ethan, Delilah, David, and Gabriel. He is also survived by his brother Austin and sisters Nellie and Alexandra.

He was predeceased by his wife of 63 years, Olga, his parents Peter and Tekla, and his son Wesley.
